Analysis by the Bureau of Chemistry of this department of a sample of the article showed that it consisted of suppositories containing cocoa butter, quinine sulphate, zinc sulphate, boric acid, and traces of formaldehyde and phenol.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libels for the reason that the above-quoted statements regarding the curative and therapeutic effects of the said article, borne on the labels, were false and fraudulent, since it contained no ingredient or combination of ingredients capable of producing the effects claimed.

On January 5, 1927, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

On or about January 10, 1927, the United States attorneys for the Northern District of California, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district libels praying seizure and condemnation of 12,187 cases of canned salmon, remaining in the original unbroken packages in part at Alameda, Calif., and in part at San Francisco, Calif., consigned by the Alaska Packers Assoc., Nushagak, Alaska, alleging that the article had been shipped from Nushagak, Alaska, in inter-state commerce into the State of California, arriving in part August 27, 1926, and in part August 31, 1926, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act.

It was alleged in the libels that the article was adulterated, in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal substance.

On January 25, 1927, the Buttnick Mfg. Co., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libels and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of bonds totaling $74,000, the terms of said bonds requiring that the product be reconditioned under the supervision of this department.

14993. Adulteration and misbranding of vinegar. U. S. v. 100 Barrels of Vinegar. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 16886. I. S. Nos. 5449-v, 5450-v. S. No. C-2927.)

On October 30, 1922, the United States attorney for the District of Minnesota, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 100 barrels of vinegar, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Winona, Minn., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Powell Corp., from Canandaigua, N. Y., on or about September 26, 1922, and transported from the State of New York into the State of Minnesota, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Barrel) "Pure Cider Vinegar Made From Apples * * * Made By The Powell Corp. Canandaigua, N. Y."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that evaporated or dried apple products and distilled vinegar had been mixed and packed with and substituted wholly or in part for the said article.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statement "Pure Cider Vinegar Made From Apples," borne on the label, was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was an imitation of and was offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article.

On January 29, 1927, Latsch & Son, Winona, Minn., claimants, having consented to the condemnation and forfeiture of the product, and the court having found that the allegations of the libel were true, a decree was entered, ordering that the said product be released to the claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the filing of an undertaking with sufficient surety, conditioned that it be relabeled under the supervision of this department.
